Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

The Louisville Journal indulges in a very intemperate criticism upon the president's message, which appears to be too radical for the tender sensibilities of that journal! That portion of the message which alarms and offends, is the paragraph wherein the president declares that he has adhered to the confiscation act, that he will only consider any new law which congress may pass on that subject, and that we must not be in haste to determine what extreme measures are indispensable in putting down the rebellion. The Journal charges that this is an expression of approval of the policy of Secretary Cameron and John C. Calhoun, and that it is "unmanly," "unworthy," "lacking statesmanship," and "mortifies and puts to shame every loyal man of Kentucky."

The strictures of the Journal are without cause. The president has not indicated any policy in relation to the emancipation of the slaves of rebels, except a conformity to the confiscation act of last congress. His caution on this subject in his message, is so apparent that it has justly offended his best friends, both in the north and the south. We have no doubt that this course was pursued by him to satisfy just such existing Union men as the Louisville Journal. We do not doubt, either, that the hesitating and feeble policy of the commander of our armies, from the beginning of the rebellion, when Fort Sumter was invested and not reinforced, to this hour, has been dictated by a desire not to offend and irritate the quasi-union men of the south. The government has been so retarded in its efforts by such considerations, that we have lost thousands of lives and millions of dollars for fear that an advance here or there would be premature; while the rebels have not hesitated to take advantage of our back weakness, and secured the best strategical points in the border slave states. There is not a doubt that we might have occupied Manassas Junction easily in the first week in June. Instead of allowing the confederates to seize Columbus and Memphis, Gen. Prentiss could have occupied those points and would to-day have held them. Now, it will be necessary to sacrifice hundreds and perhaps thousands of lives to obtain possession of them. Gen. Prentiss did not occupy these places because the government feared to offend the Union men of Kentucky by an invasion of their sacred soil, and now northern blood must flow freely to repair the error committed for the sake of conciliating those who were rebels then, like Breckinridge and Buckner, together with many who are now debating whether they will stand by their country, or throw themselves into the arms of rebellion. The same policy, with even more fatal results, is apparent in Missouri, where the Union cause is struck down in one half of the state, that the Union men of Kentucky might be propitiated. The blood of Lyon and his brave compatriots was shed in vain, because the government dared not sustain him. It is cold, invidious and cowardly policy, dictated from border slave states, which has mysteriously held back our columns from advancing into the midst of the rebel states, and conquering a peace. It is for this reason that winter is now upon us, and the campaign has not yet commenced, while many of our soldiers are sickening and dying for want of shelter, and those who are yet in health are being disorganized by activity and the hopelessness of the prospect before them.

We trust, now that it is found, with all our sacrifices, totally impossible to satisfy the pretended Union men of the Louisville Journal stamp, that the president will inaugurate a vigorous policy in this war, and use all the means at hand, consistent with civilized warfare, to put down this infernal rebellion. The rebels have forfeited all rights, and should be dealt with as men who have put themselves outside of constitutions and laws; and their lives, property and slaves should be subordinate at all times and in every way to the great and paramount duty of saving the nation from destruction, and upholding the Union.

Body Guards.—It is stated in the papers that a company of cavalry from Clintonville, Ill., is to be the body guard of Gen. Halleck, and Gen. Buell is to have a whole regiment of Pennsylvania cavalry for his body guard. It was a great crime for Fremont to accept the services of 150 young and brave men in this capacity, but it is all right for other generals to do so now. We call the attention of the Chicago Tribune to this subject, as it must have escaped their notice amidst their arduous labors in directing the affairs of the nation. That paper is especially opposed to body guards, since one of the editors came in contact with a "barbaric" of that kind at St. Louis.

It is a noticeable fact that those members of the president's cabinet who are assumed to be radical on the slavery question are all of democratic party antecedents, while those from the other stock are all understood to be "conservative" in their views and position.

Total deficiency, $34,362,635.44.

The rates of postage from 1841 to 1846 were 6, 10, 12, 18, and 25 cents. In 1846 the rates were reduced to 5 cents under 300 miles, and 10 cents over 300 miles. In 1848 the first stamp was used. In 1850 the excess of revenue over expenditures was $260,367.74; in 1851 the excess was $112,623.31. In 1852 the rates of postage were reduced to 3 cents under 3,000 miles, and 6 cents over 3,000.

It is noticeable that in nineteen years the revenue has increased less than 160 per cent., yet the expenditures have increased over 300 per cent. In 1850-51 there was a small surplus over expenses. The rates of postage in those two years were 5 cents under and 10 cents over 300 miles. In 1852 the rates were reduced to 3 cents under 3,000 miles and 6 cents over that distance. The consequence was deficiency of over $2,000,000 that year, which has increased steadily, until, in 1853, we find it amounts to nearly $5,000,000. The cause of this enormous deficiency is not even glanced at in the report, yet the people have a right to enquire why they should be taxed to pay the vast amount of $32,376,343.31, which has accrued in eight years, to sustain a branch of the government that ought to be self-sustaining, and can be, as is proved by the exhibit of 1850-51.

Of the total receipts, a fraction less than 20 per cent. is absorbed in the payment of postmasters. In 1841 they received $1,347,013.58; in 1859, $2,453,000.97, while there was paid in 1841, for transportation, $3,320,665.54, and in 1859, $9,730,418.94.

Of the nineteen years embraced in the report, New York, Massachusetts and Rhode Island are the only states that have not been deficient in any year; Pennsylvania has been deficient two years of that period, Delaware six, Ohio eleven, Louisiana eight, Connecticut three, Maine and Wisconsin two, Iowa eleven, Missouri twelve, Michigan fourteen, New Hampshire nine, Vermont thirteen, Indiana twelve, New Jersey seventeen, Kentucky eighteen. Of the states recently admitted, California has paid expenses two years, Minnesota one, Oregon one, Kansas one, Texas one.

Of the nineteen free states, there is but one, Illinois, that has not paid expenses some one year of this period, while of the fifteen slave states, ten of them show a deficiency every year—some of them very large. That of Alabama ranges from $61,000 to $350,000, Virginia from $23,000 to $255,000, and North Carolina from $103,000 to $131,000 per annum deficit.

In this term of nineteen years, not one slave state paid expenses. Delaware came nearest, showing a deficiency of only $2,785.43. The deficiencies of all the other states are shown by millions. New York, in this time, has paid into the treasury a surplus over expenses of $7,301,693.82, Massachusetts of $2,682,378.14, and Rhode Island of $399,364.10. The deficiency of Illinois for the whole term of nineteen years is $1,649,169.42; of Ohio $1,988,769.71. Indiana is considerably less, and the balance of the free states reach, in the aggregate, almost to the paying point. The deficiency in Louisiana for the whole period is $1,145,321.72, in North Carolina $2,460,172.28, in Alabama $2,812,726.02, in Virginia $1,995,233.72. Several other of the slave states approach these figures very nearly, and all except Delaware show a very large deficiency.

Yours, J. M. BURGESS.

A HARD QUESTION.—A correspondent requests us to inform our readers how a republican superintendent of Indian affairs with $2,000 salary can save $100,000 in four years. The problem is beyond our arithmetic.—Galena Courier.

The form of this question leads to the inference that if the incumbent of the office were a democrat there would be no necessity for making the inquiry.

TANTALIZING.—Gen. Sickles' men appear to be having some fun with the rebels on the lower Potomac. The correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser, says:

The troops amuse themselves at the game of dodge and catch, a new game, in which the rebels throw the balls and our boys catch them. There are now ninety non-explosive shells in camp, and the number is increasing on the increase. Shotguns, scoops and small propellers run the blockade with impunity. Sixty shot and shell have been fired at one schooner within the past week without the slightest injury to her. The rebels come down to the beach and abuse our troops, who in return, want to know what the news is from Charleston, and then hold up to the view of the rebels large chunks of corned beef and pork, and occasionally a quarter of fresh beef is strung up on a pole for the especial gratification of the starving rebels. When live chickens, ducks and turkeys are put on exhibition, the rebels become furious, and shoot off another volley of harmless shells.

COTTON IN VENEZUELA.—The culture of cotton is now quite general among the planters in Venezuela. Nearly two thousand bales have been shipped to Philadelphia in three weeks from Puerto Cabello, and five thousand bales are ready for shipment at Laguayra for New York and Boston.—From Cabutra to the mouths of the Orinoco river 50,000 acres have been planted with cotton, where never a pound of cotton was raised before.

It is a noticeable fact that those members of the president's cabinet who are assumed to be radical on the slavery question are all of democratic party antecedents, while those from the other stock are all understood to be "conservative" in their views and position.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DESPATCHES.

Boston, Dec. 9. Mr. Waltham was elected mayor of Boston to-day, by 6,753 votes against 5,186 for R. S. Tully the republican and citizen candidate.

New York, Dec. 10. The Times correspondent states that a caucus of republicans was attended by about forty members; all newspaper men and considered the object of the meeting giving a loyal support to the war. Nothing should be done by republicans to create dissension, or revive party distinctions in its prosecution. Many speeches were made in the caucus, but the vote on resolution was postponed till Wednesday. Mr. Pomroy of Kansas was chairman, Mr. Pierson of Pennsylvania clerk. Thad. Stevens made a long speech in favor of emancipation. He denounced McClellan as trying to control the legislative and executive powers. Mr. Devine of New York replied, saying, if the object of the caucus was to provide a war policy it was very proper. The way to end the war was by fighting, not by resolutions in congress. He closed right.

Refugees represent that in Henderson, Carroll, Harmon, and McNary counties, Tennessee, the Union feeling is very strong, and only awaiting the approach of federal troops to make a general uprising. It is understood by the President that the legislature of Kentucky will abolish slavery, re-inforcing royal measures.

World's Dispatch.—The small pox is getting prevalent by the carelessness of the surgeon general, in allowing cases of this disease to be in the same hospital with other patients. It is rumored that a prominent member of Banks' staff has disappeared with important papers.

Herald's dispatch says that a negro from Conoverville, states that the rebels had a review of 50,000 troops there a few days since, during which a panic seized them, consequent upon a rumor that the federal troops were marching on the place. They fleeing from the field, leaving guns, wagons and everything else.

Lowville, Dec. 10. Parson Brownlow publishes a card in the Memphis Avalanche of the 30th, condemning bridge burning by Unionists, and saying he, with others, had pledged themselves to see Zollicoffer to counsel peace and acquiescence on the part of the Union men of East Tennessee, and that if he had known of the intended bridge burning he should have felt bound in honor and conscience to have informed the officers of the road of such an outrageous plot.

Nashville papers contain letters from George N. Saunders to Kosuth, extolling the secession movement and hoping European lovers of freedom would lead their sympathies to the south.

An elegant flag was presented by the ladies of Louisville to Gen. Mahan at Camp Ben Spaulding yesterday. Mr. Lingle, editor of the Lafayette Courier, made the presentation speech, in behalf of the ladies.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 9. Garrett Davis nominated senator, beating Guthrie one vote.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

Fortress Monroe, Dec. 9. A flag of truce went to Norfolk this morning, carrying 32 prisoners, discharged by the United States on parole. A rebel flag was taken up on board, and transferred some ladies coming from Richmond. From to day's Norfolk Daily-Book we learn that a battle is immediately expected on the Potomac, as the soldiers are receiving their accoutrements. War rumors were plentiful and the war fever was very high.

A telegram from Savannah, Dec. 7th, states that General Butler's expedition arrived that day at Port Royal. Nothing is said about Parson Brownlow's victory, or of the Port Pickens affair.

New York, Dec. 9. The following is a copy of a report of Capt. Wilkes, assigning his reasons for the arrest of Mason and Sidel:

U. S. STEAMER SAN JACINTO, At Sea, Nov. 18, 1861. The government of Great Britain, France and Spain having issued proclamations that the confederate states were viewed as considered and treated as belligerents, I felt no hesitation in boarding and searching all vessels of whatever nation I fell in with, and have done so. The question rose in my mind, whether I had the right to capture the persons of the commissioners; there was no doubt that I had the right to capture vessels with written commissions. They are expressly referred to in all authorities, subjecting the vessel to seizure and condemnation, if the captain of the vessel had the knowledge of their being on board. But those gentlemen were not despatches, in the literal sense, and no where could I find a case in point.

They had been presented to the captain General of Cuba, by Her British Majesty's Consul General, but the captain general told me he had not received them in that capacity, but as distinguished gentlemen and strangers. I then considered them as the embodiment of the despatches, and I thereupon because my duty to arrest their papers and capture them, if they had no passports or papers from the federal government, as provided for under the law of nations, namely: that foreign ministers of a belligerent on board of neutral ships, are expected to possess papers from the other belligerent to permit them to pass free. As respects the steamer in which they embarked, the agent of the vessel, the son of the British consul at Havana, was well aware of the character of these persons.

They went in the steamer with the knowledge and consent of the Captain, who endeavored afterward to conceal them by refusing to exhibit the passenger list, and the papers of the vessel. There can be no doubt that he knew they were carrying highly important despatches and were endowed with instructions inimical to the United States.

This rendered his vessel, though a neutral, a good prize. I determined to take possession of the vessel, and as I was prejudiced in my report, send her to Key West for adjudication. I forbore to seize her, however, in consequence of my being so reduced in officers and crew, and the derangement it would cause innocent persons, there being a large number of passengers who would have been put to great loss and inconvenience, as well as disappointment, if the derangement it would have caused them in not being able to join the steamer from St. Thomas for Europe.

I, therefore, concluded to sacrifice the interests of my officers and crew in the prize and suffer the steamer to proceed, after the necessary detention to effect the transfer of these commissioners, considering I had attained the important end I had in view.

Signed, CHAS. WILKES.

The Markets.

New York, Dec. 10. Flour receipts 25,676 bbls, market steady and unchanged. Sales of 13,800 bbls, at 5.40s, 5.55 for super state; 5.60s, 5.70 extra do; 5.40s, 5.50 super western; 5.65s, 5.90 for common extra western. Wheat receipts 207,600 bu; market shade better and good export demand. Sales 125,000 bu. at 1.30 for Milwaukee club; 1.32 Canada club; 1.38s, 1.39 winter red western.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

THE UNION FLAG IN A REBEL PAPER.—The Union banner is displayed in the columns of the Charleston Mercury. It appears in a picture accompanying an advertisement of the Montgomery Guard, and has the full number of stripes, with thirty-one stars in the field.

It turns out now that the confederate steamer Nashville, at Southampton, had on board, as passenger, Col. Peyton, who goes out accredited by Jeff. Davis as confederate minister to Spain. His family were with him.

THE CAPITOL OF CANADA.—The debt-burdened province of Canada is alarmed at the expense of the new capitol buildings at Ottawa. Only one building is half done, at a cost of $900,000, and to complete the work according to the plans will require $3,000,000 more, or double the amount estimated when the work was begun.

TREATED LIKE FELONS.—A letter from Capt. Bowman, at Richmond, states that he and seven other officers are confined in one cell, and treated like felons. They were selected to abide the fate of the Savannah prisoners.

The effective force of the Spanish army is now 271,000 infantry, 23,000 cavalry, and 14,000 artillery.

THE FIGHT AT PENNSACOLA.—Both parties are silent this morning. I walked down to the beach this morning, and looked at Pickens. She seems considerably battered. A long dark place upon her side, which the men say is shot marks, was plainly visible. Poor Fort McKee suffered yesterday far more than we thought. Six men were killed by the falling of the cover of a rest, and ten others wounded. They say 500 shot and shell fell into the fort. The damage was done by the ships, which took position southwest of the fort, where the shells could not be so effectively, and fired broadside after broadside upon her. A battery located just back of her, aided in repelling the attack, and it is said struck them fifteen times. Only two ships are off the harbor this morning. I fear neither party will renew the fight this morning. If they do, McKee will probably be abandoned during the day, and the battery behind her worked.

But if she was leveled to the sand, nothing would be accomplished towards the reduction of our batteries. We have never counted her as anything in the fight. If the light opens again before the mail leaves, I will let you know.—Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser, Nov. 26.

MOVEMENTS OF GEN. FREMONT.—On Wednesday evening a large party of ladies and gentlemen met at the residence of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in Brooklyn, and received Major General and Mrs. Fremont. A banquet was the token of honor to the distinguished visitor. The guests included a large number of ladies. Yesterday, the Major General having private business claiming his attention, he did not receive any calls. The vestibule of the Astor House continues to be thronged with persons anxious to see the "Pathfinder." One urgent gentleman, who had come all the way from Pittsburgh to do a little business for the sake of seeing General Fremont at the same time, said: "I am no wordsmith; not a bit of it; but I do want to express my opinion with a sight of the man who marched an army to Springfield, Missouri, from St. Louis, when Gen. Thomas reported that it was impossible for him to move for want of transportation. We understand these things in Pittsburgh—we do."—New York Tribune.

As to the advance of the army it is as much a question now as ever. On the one hand, the troops have not been authorized to prepare winter quarters, in spite of the discomforts they are forced to undergo in their present condition. A good general would not, of course, subject them to need less suffering, consequently we judge that further operations are contemplated this season, and that the winter quarters are to be fixed elsewhere. On the other hand, the roads are fast becoming unfit for army movements. Their condition is now such that not one officer in fifty credits the possibility of a campaign before the spring, or such time as the roads shall be trustworthy. These are the two horns of the dilemma. Nobody knows what General McClellan's policy is, except, of course, the general himself, who is presumed to have an understanding in the matter. Everybody concludes his right to perfect insurmountability, which, probably, however, makes no vast amount of difference in the mystery of his ways, since if everybody disputed it, he would not be a bit more communicative. His plans for the winter must be soon developed, for the soldiers cannot stand their exposure much longer, and unless something is given them to do to warm their hands and feet, their natural enthusiasm, they may be packed in winter quarters and kept alive by artificial heat.—Cor. N. Y. Tribune.

JAYHAWKERS.—The origin of this odd name is thus explained by a Leavenworth writer: "The term 'jayhawkers' has become so generally applied in Kansas that some interest may be felt outside to know its meaning. It is a term of reproach, and was first used by the friends of the free state, in the fall of 1857, when the troubles in Kansas began. Kansas having commenced, the free state people established a square court, before which they tried the men who were accused of fomenting the disturbance. Their method of punishing gave rise to the name of 'jayhawking.' Men were fined for the offenses of which Judge Lynch found them guilty. On refusal to meet the fine, they were visited by armed parties, who, perhaps, frightened them by firing, or took that which they considered necessary to pay the fine.

If offenders were again committed, the pro-slavery forces were ordered to leave; that failing, the order was enforced. It was emphatically a system of 'worrying.' The Missourians say there is a variety of hawk which does not at once sweep on its prey, but like a cat, torments it awhile. This is known as the 'jayhawk.' The similarity of proceedings caused the name to be applied to the guerrilla of Southern Kansas. I do not know that there is a bird of these habits, and as the books are silent thereon, I am inclined to doubt it; but the word is now in use in relation to Kansas, had this origin."

THE U. S. SANITARY COMMISSION.—The United States Sanitary Commission have arrived at Hartford. It contains details of the army, and is therefore very long. Since their organization they have received and expended two hundred thousand dollars.—This fund has been raised from voluntary contributions. During the last month they have spent one thousand dollars per day, procuring necessities for invalids in the army. Twenty-five inspectors are employed by the commission, whose duty it is to visit the hospitals, and see that the troops are kept in the best of health. They expect large quantities of clothing, which will be distributed to the army in a very short time.

Foreign News.

The steamship Africa arrived in New York on the 8th, with English dates to the 28th ult.

Judge Gorchuch brought special dispatches for Washington.

The affair of the Nashville continues to excite great attention. She is still at Southampton. Nothing has been done towards supplies or repairing her. Capt. Pegram denies not holding a commission as had been stated, and publishes his commission as lieutenant from Jeff. Davis.

LATEST VIA QUEENSTOWN.—The London Observer, ministerial organ, alluding to the Nashville to arm and coal at Southampton, says, it becomes necessary to issue a proclamation to the government respecting vessels asking an asylum in our ports. A stay unnecessarily protracted or for aggressive purposes cannot be encouraged. The Daily News says it would be monstrous if belligerents while in neutral ports were permitted to obtain means for continuing the war.

The London Star says it is a destruction in law, as well as a feeling between friendly powers and powers acknowledged as belligerents.

The Herald says if the Nashville is permitted to receive an armament, England will be departing from her neutrality, and will embroil herself with the federal government. Any aid beyond what is necessary to render the vessel seaworthy may well raise the jealousy of the American government.

Lord Stanley, in a speech, said it was not surprising that Americans took offense at the way England settled their affairs for them, and argued that the American government had acted otherwise than they had, but that two governments are inevitable sooner or later.

Mr. Layard defended the policy of the English government, and regretted it was misunderstood by Americans, but denied there was any proof of backing down of democratic institutions.

The Bank of France has reduced its rate of discount from six to five per cent. The house was firm.

An official dispatch says Omar Pasha defeated 8,000 insurgents near Elva, after four hours fight, with a loss of 300 killed and wounded. A numerous body of insurgents from Montenegro, who intended to invade Kalosheia, were repulsed after a bloody fight.

Telegraphic Items.

The following items we find in the reports which failed to come to us Saturday in consequence of a break in the wires.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. Last night the rebels attacked our forces at Leesburg. After some severe fighting the rebels finally retreated. The loss of the rebels is ascertained to be five killed and ten wounded. Among the latter was Col. Smith of the 6th Georgia. The loss on our side was two killed and four wounded.

Comm. Poor of the Brooklyn, tried by court martial for allowing the escape of the Sumter from New Orleans, has been acquitted, and the finding is approved.

Gen. Patterson, at Philadelphia, has made official application for a court of inquiry into that part of the spring campaign with which he was connected.

Gen. Fremont has taken lodgings here. Two reconnoissances under Gen. Sudgwick, on the left wing, and under Gen. Hancock, on the right wing, were made to the front this morning. Neither saw any enemy, although both found traces of his recent presence.

St. Louis, Dec. 6.

A house on fifth street, opposite Southern Hotel, belonging to Truett Polk, was seized to-day by the Provost Marshal, for the benefit of the southwest Union refugees. The inference is that Polk is a secessionist, and on this assumption he was expelled from the senate. The necessary bedding, etc., will be taken from "secession" firms.

An interesting contraband question has arisen at Rolla. Capt. Wood, of the Kansas Rangers, having released several darkies found manacled to an ox wagon, on a march from Crawford county, they were claimed by a man named Wheelan, who pretended to be a British subject. Wood considered this pretence was a fraud and proved Wheelan a rank secessionist. The case was submitted to Col. Dodge, the 4th Iowa regiment, commanding the post, but no action has been taken. If Wheelan is a Britisher, he is an alien, and cannot sue in our courts. If not, he has lied, and Wood contends that it is not the army's business to return negroes. The darkies are still in camp at Rolla.

Col. Dougherty has arrived at Cairo, under an escort of prisoners. He is improving rapidly.

A dispatch from Richmond, of the 3d, states that Col. Henry Hays, of Virginia, has been appointed major general of the department of Missouri, thus virtually superseding General Price.

Boston, Dec. 7. Next week eleven officers and two hundred and forty prisoners of the North Carolina regiment will be sent to Fort Monroe from Fort Warren and released on parole, and an equal number of our men will be returned from Richmond.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7. The charges against Colonel Kerrigan, twenty-fifth regiment New York volunteers, now under arrest in Washington, are understood to be disrespectful conduct to his superior officer and neglect of his own regiment, thereby tending to produce insubordination. His trial has not yet taken place. Gen. Smith's division was ordered today to the neighborhood of Vienna, and gathered four wagon loads of forage. No enemy was seen in any direction.

It is rumored that the rebels have evacuated their position at Aquia.

General Pope has been assigned to the command of all the federal forces between the Missouri and Osage rivers. This force constitutes the largest part of the army which General Fremont took to Springfield.

Many preparations are now being made for the establishment of winter quarters for the troops.

Price is still south of the Osage river, near Osceola, and is losing more men by desertion and the expiration of the time of service than he has gained by his proclamation. If he crosses the Osage lively times may be expected.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. The roads between Washington and the Maryland side of the Potomac, was almost impassable for army and baggage wagons.

NOT SANCTIFIED.—A traitor Methodist preacher who married in Hartford county, Md., recently fled from Virginia, and returned to Hartford. Having occasion to visit the store of a Quaker in the neighborhood, our divine began to utter treasonable sentiments. Friend Drabolt could not stand it. "Thee shall not talk so in my store," said the Friend: "these left thy friends and came here; thee shall go out of my store or I will put thee out and thrash thee afterward." "I thought," said the preacher, "Quakers didn't fight." "Sanctified Quakers do not fight," said Drabolt; "but un-sanctified Quakers, and thee must go out." Our divine left.—Western Christian Advocate.

A New Arrangement.

On the 1st of next January a change will be made in the proprietorship of the Gazette Office by the withdrawal of Mr. Bowen. This change will render absolutely necessary a settlement of the subscriptions and other accounts due to the present firm. We hope our friends will give this matter their immediate attention, and leave as few debts as possible for settlement after the change is made. It will be easier and better to all concerned to settle before that time, as a settlement must be made.

TREASURER'S RECEIPTS.

We have printed a very superior article of TREASURER'S RECEIPTS, with stubs, which we will sell for 75 cents a hundred. The utility of this kind of receipts will be seen by examining them.

CHRIST CHURCH SCHOOL.—This school closed on Wednesday, Dec. 3d, and will commence a new quarter on Wednesday, Dec. 10th, at 9 o'clock A. M. Terms as heretofore, $5.00 and $3.00 in advance. Patrons of the school are earnestly requested to see to it that their children are prompt and regular in their attendance upon it, and when this can not be the case a definite understanding to this effect between the parents and the teachers is required.

PROPOSALS FOR SUBSISTENCE.—Attention is directed to the advertisement for proposals for subsistence for Col. Barstow's cavalry regiment.

SECOND REGIMENT.—The effective force of the second Wisconsin regiment is said to be about 750 men. New recruits are joining it.

Cavalry Horses.—The Boscobel Express says that Col. Washburn has been in that place buying cavalry horses. The prices paid averaged about $100, which is thought to be a fair consideration.

LADIES AID SOCIETY.—We understand the "Nationals" will give a grand vocal concert, under the auspices of the "Ladies Aid Society," for the benefit of the brave volunteers of the 13th regiment, on Monday evening, Dec. 16th at Lappin's Hall. This troupe is highly spoken of, and as the object is a good one, we bespeak for them a crowded house. Tickets for sale at the Post Office, Mr. Wilson's music store and both the book stores.

FUNERAL OF CHARLES BROWN.

The members of Western Star Lodge No. 14 of free and accepted masons, are hereby requested at the masonic hall at one o'clock, to-morrow, for the purpose of attending the funeral of our late brother, Charles Brown. The members of Janesville City Lodge are hereby invited to attend, as well as all brothers in good standing now in the city, belonging to other masonic organizations. The funeral will take place from the residence of Mr. James Brown, on Academy street at 2 o'clock, P. M.

ANDREW BOSS,

W. M. Western Star Lodge No. 14.

December 10, 1861.

The circumstances, as we learn, connected with the injury which resulted in the death of Mr. Brown, are as follows: On the evening of the 4th inst. he was preparing to retire to his bed, about 9 o'clock, with a kerosene lamp by his side, when the chimney of the lamp bursted, and immediately thereafter the lamp itself exploded, burning Mr. B. upon his back and arms very badly. His presence of mind, however, enabled him to rush from the door of his room and put out the fire upon himself by rolling in the snow, after which he returned to his room and extinguished the flames upon his bed. By this time he was so much exhausted as to be unable to call for help, and falling upon the bed, remained in this condition until his brother came to his place of business in the morning, finding the deceased suffering intensely from the injuries he had received. Dr. Adams was immediately called for, but the burns were so severe that they were beyond medical skill. He died last evening about 11 o'clock. Mr. B. was a worthy man—a bachelor—and leaves many friends to mourn his loss.

There are at this time 6000 federal troops at St. Joseph, Mo.

The Chicago Journal says that the failure of Gen. Fremont to reinforce Gen. Lyon and Col. Mullanigan was the result of positive orders from his superior officers at Washington; that it was their fault, and not his.

ENLISTMENT.—There has been a question raised whether or not persons enlisting in the cavalry service in this state who have families are entitled to the five dollars in addition to the regular pay. We have taken pains to-day to examine the matter and get the opinion of some of our best lawyers upon the point, and there is no doubt but that the cavalry volunteers stand in the same position as infantry, and are entitled to the five dollars extra pay. Persons enlisting in Col. Barstow's or Col. Washburn's regiments, need have no fear of their extra pay from the state. [Com.]

A DAY CONTRACT.—John Hill, of Philadelphia, has secured a contract for five thousand tons of hay at $25 per ton, delivered at Washington.

To Our Debtors.

It will be seen by a notice in another column, that on the first of January next there will be a change in the proprietorship of the Gazette. The NECESSITY of a settlement of ALL our accounts will be apparent to all who will give the subject their attention, and as our own convenience will be materially promoted by a settlement before the dissolution of the partnership, and the interest of no debtor will be injured by doing in season what must come at last, we hope there will be no request or attempt at delay. Mr. Wilcox will devote his time to this matter, and as there are a large number of persons to settle with, let each one be prepared when called on. No one will be turned out of the office if he calls here for that purpose.

FLOATING LAND.—In Stockton, California, there exists quite large tracts of land that actually float upon deep water. The soil of them is composed of two or three feet deep, and a twenty foot pole forced through it finds no bottom below, as there is usually a lake of great depth beneath it. This we should say is at high tide, for the lands rise and fall with it. Some of the tracts are very superior grazing land, and large quantities of hay are cut upon it, persons going with their carts, animals and machinery upon the tracts. At high water the land bends up ahead, like a small hill, when a heavy team passes over it, which embarrasses the cattle very much. They are generally driven over it at low tide. The bending is like that of ice in some stages, and there are air holes in the land. Persons navigating sloops and sometimes compelled to try an acre or two on one side or the other to afford room for their vessels to pass. These singular formations originate, probably, from floating timber and other drift stuffs have been collected and by some means have sunk under the water sufficient to receive the sediment left by floods for years. The owners of these lands intend, by artificial means to double the depth of the soil on their islands, considering them a valuable part of their possessions. —Stockton Republican.

SECRETARY WELLES.—The report of the secretary of the navy is universally commended as an able and valuable document. There was a disposition some time since, to underrate the energies of Mr. Welles, but this idea has long since been dissipated. —The navy is becoming the right arm of the government, under the management of the able head of the department. —N.
